JUDGE : Ms SONIA SMITH (TREVALLION)

- 1100 hrs Meet at Forces Farm, Butterleigh, Nr Cullompton EX15 1PJ for coffee/tea and refreshments
- 1120-1200 hrs Briefing of the candidates by the judge based on a paper and diagrams on what to look for when judging a Section D, points of the cob and what terminology they should use when describing aspects of the cob.
- 1200-1230 hrs Go to stable yard and the judge will talk about type using a Section D as an example (this cob will not be in the group to be judged in the afternoon)
- 1230-1330 hrs Buffet lunch
- 1345 hrs YOUNG JUDGES COMPETITION - The Judge and Competitors, who can be aged between 10 and 21 years will be asked to observe 4 Section D cobs which will be shown as if in a class in the show ring, and then individually. This will take place in the outdoor ménage The procedure will follow that which takes place at the final They will have a score sheet on which to mark their placings and also make any notes on half of the sheet which they will retain and no one else will see.. They will hand in the other half with their placings on and then go back indoors to be interviewed individually by the judge with a writer present to write down any notes the judge wishes to make for her own use. During the interview they will discuss why they had chosen the order of cobs they had written down, and generally discuss their reasons.
The best 3 competitors selected by the judge will go forward to represent the Association at the National Finals at Malvern on Saturday 8th August.

If you have not already let Jess Talbot know you are interested in attending please complete the form below and send it to her or email: jessmay15@hotmail.co.uk

If you would like to take part anyway, for example, if you are outside the age range (either older or younger!) or do not want to be considered as a member of the SWA team but would like to come along, you are welcome to attend but we would like to know for catering numbers.
